The hot weather does not seem to have exerted a debilitating effect on the lively imaginations of the democratic newspaper correspondents in Washington. The regular crop of ridiculous democratic falsehoods about the president and the prominent members of the administration is as plentiful as ever.

Chicago Inter Ocean: These are the days when you can most always tell when a democratic editor is "tired," "out of soap," or "in the soup," by his remarking that "the president will boot Tanner," and "Blaine will soon leave the cabinet." Just why they don't invent something fresh no fellow can find out.

The New York Times London cable says that Monday's weekly report from Bombay by cable settles the fact that the Indian wheat crop will be no factor at all in the question of the world's food supply this year. The shortage in Europe will be so great that the market will be more at the mercy of the United States than ever before.

The plucky people of burned-out Seattle have issued an address, through the Associated Press, in which they thank their fellow citizens at large for their sympathy and help in Seattle's hour of trial. The address makes the cheerful statement that Seattle is being rebuilt as rapidly as possible. Before long it will be as thriving and prosperous as ever. Its citizens have the true American spirit, and they deserve to thrive.

A Washington dispatch says: The annual report of the officers in charge of Wisconsin river and harbor works shows satisfactory progress. Milwaukee harbor and labor of refuge asks for $200,000 for next year to extend the length of the pier for the harbor of refuge and $20,000 to deepen harbor channel to eighteen feet, and repair the walls. The office also asks for $50,000 each for Kewaunee, Sheboygan, Racine and Kenosha; $10,000 for Green Bay; $16,000 for Ashwaubee, and $200,000 for the Fox and Wisconsin improvement, and $62,000 for the care of dams on the same.

A statement has been widely published in the newspapers of this country that General Grant was a spiritualist. Henry W. Wilbur, of Hammon, N. J., has just sent a letter to the Washington Post, which he received from General Grant in 1883, on the subject. In this letter General Grant says: "Dear Sir—My published denial of the charge of being a spiritualist or believer in spiritualism, was as explicit as I knew how to make it. I never witnessed, nor took interest enough in the subject to do so, one of the spiritualistic performances. I never held a conversation on the subject with one who was a believer."

The new commissioner of Indian affairs shows a keen appreciation of the needs of the Indian service in his official announcement that appointments there are hereafter to be made solely on the ground of competency and with the understanding that the appointees will discharge their duties faithfully. He also says that their tenure of office will be permanent so long as they continue competent and efficient. This is the correct spirit to carry into the Indian service, and it ought to be carried out with religious zeal. During the greater part of the Cleveland administration these appointments were grossly partisan, and the work among the Indians was paralyzed thereby.

The state authorities of New York are just now taking testimony regarding the effect of electricity in destroying life and its efficiency as a substitute for the hangman's noose. The work of lightning is all-sufficient proof of the power of electricity in this direction, and the point remaining to be determined is the method of applying the current. An interesting commentary on the testimony of the experts is furnished in a dispatch from Evansville, Indiana, where the wires were blown down on Sunday and an entire section of the city charged with the electric fluid. The dispatch gives the following details: "This city was visited by a rain and wind storm yesterday afternoon, doing much damage. About ten o'clock last evening, when the power at the electric light station for street illumination was turned on, numerous wires which had been blown down charged buildings and pools of water in the street with electricity. Fire a foot high was excited in places, causing an alarm to be sounded. The fire department responded, and being unaware of the condition of things, rushed into what was almost certain death. Horses and firemen alike were knocked down with electricity. Others rushed into a building that was apparently on fire only to be thrown violently down. Citizens rushed in and met a similar fate, and excitement ran high. A messenger hastened to the station and had the electric power shut off, and then the work of resuscitation began. A dozen or more men were found unconscious, but their lives were saved by laying them upon the wet ground. Several firemen are yet in a precarious condition."

AN ALLEGED NEW DEAL.

Commenting on the reports from democratic headquarters, the Milwaukee Sentinel remarks: "A number of the leaders of the Ohio democracy were in New York last week to see Col. Brice, and it is given out that a deal was arranged by which Mr. Cleveland is to be set aside and ex-secretary of the navy, W. O. Whitney, made the next candidate of the party for president."

The advantages, as a candidate, which Whitney possesses over Cleveland are that he is not identified with the ultra free trade wing of the party as the latter has not been defeated as a candidate before the people; and, above all, his candidacy would assure a profusion of funds for the campaign, and the democratic leaders believe that money in abundance is all important in a political campaign.

Whitney is a brother-in-law of Payne of the Standard Oil ring. He is himself wealthy, while the Standard Oil ring is, as Dr. Johnson would say, rich beyond the dreams of opulence. Nearly all its stockholders are millionaires. Payne is said to be worth $22,000,000, and Rockefeller's income is put at $9,000,000. The first move of the ring is to maintain control of the seat in the senate which was bought for old man Payne. The latter is now about 80, and will not expect a reelection. If a democratic legislature is elected, and to that end a vigorous effort will be made, the seat now occupied by Payne will be transferred to Colonel Bruce, who already has new visions of rainbows. But, after all, it may prove that even the Standard Oil Company has not enough money to buy up the American people."

THE GENTLER SEX.

Mrs. Albert Eckersley, the third daughter of Prof. Hurley, has gone to Mexico to live, her husband having business interests there.

A woman living in the central part of New York State has a flower farm of seven acres from which she sometimes clears $2,000 a year.

An English girl, who calls herself an accountant and auditor, finds employment in looking after the expenditures and business of large families.

There are four sisters Montalva in England who have marked artistic talent. One of them, Miss Hilda, exhibits a bust of Mr. Browning in the Royal academy.

Miss Olive Schrader, who is now a prominent figure in London literary circles, lives in lodgings in the East End for the purpose of studying the characters she meets.

A protest against female suffrage in England has appeared in the Nineteenth Century under the joint production of Mrs. Humphrey Ward and Miss Beatrice Potter.

The Brandon female college is conducted exclusively by women. It was incorporated twenty years ago and its curriculum, discipline and everything about it are controlled by Miss Frank Johnson and her assistants.

Miss Caroline King, a young Boston artist, was offered $200 to make a series of designs representing the industries of women. She wanted the money, but when she found the pictures were to ornament cigarette packages she refused the contract.

The Maharajah Dhuleep Singh has sent a letter to an English newspaper addressed to the Queen, enumerating many fancied wrongs, and asks of her that his diamond, the Kohinoor, be restored to him, or that a fair price be paid for it out of her private purse.

THE BIBLE.

Bishop Lowth: The best standard of our language.

Dr. J. White: The English language acquired new dignity by it.

G. Washington Moon: Its purity and excellence of language.

Hallam: It is held to be the perfection of our English language.

Noah Porter: Accorded the highest significance to those books of literature.

Fishbein: In no book is there so good English, so pure, and so elegant.

George P. Marsh: The first classic of our literature, the highest exemplar of purity and beauty of language existing in speech.

Adam Clark: The English Bible is after the lapse of 200 years the standard of purity and excellence of the English language.

George Eliot: What an age of earnest faith has recorded itself in the simple, pregnant, rhythmic English of the collectors of the Bible.

Condit: Our English Bible sustains an intimate relation to English literature as a stimulant of thought as well as a standard of pure English.

George P. Marsh: No continental translation has occupied an equally influential position in the philology and literature of the language to which it belongs.

S. T. Coleridge: The constant hearing and reading of the Bible and the liturgy clothes the thought not only in the most natural but in the most beautiful form of language.

Swift: If it were not for the Bible and common prayer book in the vulgar tongue we could hardly be able to understand anything that was written among us 100 years ago.

A "Put and Call."

This is a funny phrase to the uninitiated, but all the brokers understand it. They use it when a person gives a certain per cent for the option of buying or selling stock on a fixed day, at a price stated on the day the option is given. It is often a serious operation to the dealer, but there is a more serious "put and call" than this: when you are "put" to bed with a severe cold and your friends "call" a physician. Avoid all this by keeping in the house Dr. Pierce's Medical Discovery, the great cure for pulmonary and blood diseases. Its action is marvelous. It cures the worst cough, whether acute, lingering, or chronic. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Short Breath, Consumption, Night-sweats and kindred affections, it surpasses all other medicines.

Bankrupted by High Freight Charges. KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 18.—Suits have been instituted by the Cherokee (Ill.) Coal company against the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis railroad for $100,000 damages. The coal company alleges that the railroad company charged exorbitant rates for carrying its produce that it was rendered insolvent by overcharges.

Murder Follows an Elopement. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 18.—Last night Louis Clapbrade, while pursuing his 14-year-old daughter, who was eloping with a young man, was shot by the latter, who turned out to be the same man who had been killed by Clapbrade's friends. All are Italians.

Small-Pox on a Steamer. NEW YORK, July 18.—The Belgian steamer Westernland, which arrived at the 15th instant, is detained in quarantine by a case of small-pox among the steerage passengers.

MILWAUKEE'S POSTOFFICEREPORT OF THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

Postmaster Paul's Methods Severely Decried—How Applicants Were Made—Washington News.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The civil service commission has made public its second report in the Milwaukee postoffice case. The commissioners say that Postmaster Paul was given every opportunity to explain the charges against him, and that his declaration that he was condemned without a hearing and without being informed of the charges against him is a gross misstatement. The report then recites the examinations made by Secretary Doyle and Chief Examiner Webster, whose reports showed such gross violations of the law that the three commissioners deemed the accusations of such importance as to warrant an investigation by the full board. The report continues:

"Except in two important cases we did not try to get at any new facts; we simply examined Mr. Paul to see whether he could disprove the statements or give any satisfactory explanation of the charges made in the two preliminary reports. He entirely failed to do so. That there has been crooked work in the office is admitted by all. The only question is where the responsibility lies. We examined the secretary of the local examining board, Hamilton Shady, and chairman, J. R. Johnson. Shady is admitted by all to have done the work of the board, the other members doing little save assisting in marking the papers and attending occasional formal meetings. Shady testifies that he was compelled by the postmaster to give the latter free access to the list of eligibles, although such access was at that time strictly forbidden; and he further testifies that the postmaster, knowing those who were eligible, as well as their standing, appointed whomsoever he chose, and then forced him (Shady) to torture the lists and certification books so as to produce a certification which should bear the appointee's name."

The report further cites the evidence of Shady and Johnson to show that they were forced against their own judgment to mark the papers of an applicant, and also the statement of Mr. Paul that he had not forced them to alter the mark, but that they had been altered because he expressed great dissatisfaction at the marking. Shady, in the presence of both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Paul, as well as of the three commissioners, stated that the reason for their changing the grade of the unfortunate applicant was to get him out of the way of another man whom the postmaster desired to appoint.

Continuing the report says: "In short, the official records show beyond possibility of dispute that the lists of eligibles were twisted and garbled in almost every conceivable manner in order to produce a certification which would favor certain men could be rejected, although entitled to appointment, and other men appointed, although having no rightful claim to the chance. For Mr. Paul to plead innocence is equivalent to his pleading imbecility, for no sane man could have made appointments from a succession of such certifications without perceiving their character, and it is quite incredible that he could by mere chance have picked out from each certification the very individual to favor whose choice it was designed. Mr. Paul alone benefited by the crookedness of these certifications, for he alone had the appointing power; there could be no possible object in Shady's conduct unless it was fear of thwarting the wishes of his superior officer."

FOR RIVERS AND HARBORS.

Estimates of the Engineer in Charge on Michigan and Wisconsin Improvements.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Major Davis, the engineer officer in charge of river and harbor improvements in Michigan and Wisconsin, has submitted, in his annual report, the following estimates for the continuation of the work next year:

Two Rivers harbor, Wisconsin, $3,000;
Manitowish harbor, Wisconsin, $4,000;
Sheboygan harbor, Wisconsin, $30,000;
Port Washington harbor, Wisconsin, $7,000;
harbor of refuge, Milwaukee harbor, $20,000;
Racine harbor, Wisconsin, $50,000;
Kenosha harbor, Wisconsin, $50,000;

The funds on hand—$28,000—are to be expended upon the lower dam at Appleton, on the Kaukauna second lock, Eureka lock, and deepening the Menasha canal and river channels to six feet at low water. The estimate submitted is for rebuilding Cedars lock, renovating the old locks, and deepening and widening the channel of Fox river throughout to six feet and 10 feet wide. An estimate of $69,700 is submitted for the care of locks and dams.

Yellow Fever at Colon. WASHINGTON, July 18.—The State department is informed officially of the existence of yellow fever at Colon.

Secretary Blaine has been informed by Minister Child of the issue of paper money by a Hong Kong and Shanghai banking corporation at Bankok under the sanction of the King of Siam. It is predicted that this will be of great value to the mercantile community of Siam.

Minor Appointments. WASHINGTON, July 18.—Archibald Carr of Missouri has been appointed a special agent of the general land office.

Dr. David L. Day has been appointed expert and special agent to take charge of the subject of miners and mining for the eleventh census.

Judge Tyler's Condition. WASHINGTON, July 18.—Judge Tyler's condition is considered very serious and preparations are being made to remove him from the city. He will probably be taken to Deer Park.

MANY HORSES BURNED.

Fears that Several Human Beings Perished at Lowell.

LOWELL, Mass., July 18.—At 8 o'clock last night smoke was seen issuing from the car stables at East Merrimack street, and scarcely had the alarm been given when huge sheets of flame burst from every corner of the building. The stable contained 150 horses, and had adjoining a black smith shop and paint shop. The front half of the second story was occupied by tenements. In the rear are the tenements of the poorer classes. Before the alarm bell had stopped ringing the tinder box of a stable was beyond redemption, and the people in the tenement portion of the district came rushing into the street. All the horses and cars were destroyed, and the stables, too, are supposed to be destroyed. It is not unlikely that some of those living in the tenements in the stable building have also been burned to death. The houses surrounding the stable fell before the flames like paper boxes. At 11 o'clock twelve buildings, including the car stables, had been swept away. The loss will be about $150,000.

PASSENGERS KILLED AND INJURED.

Runaway Cars Dash Into a Train. Two People Being Struck.

SHAMONK, Pa., July 18.—A terrible accident occurred on the Lehigh Valley railroad one mile east of this place at 6 o'clock last evening by two runaway gondolas loaded with 100 tons of small steel coils, crashing into a passenger train, causing the death of two people and mortally wounding four others, while over fifty received various injuries. The wounded were principally miners and laborers employed at different collieries between the place and Mount Carmel, and were coming from work.

Fire in Columbus, Ohio. COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 18.—Fire broke out at 1:45 this morning in the building of the German Furniture company on High street, in the central part of the city. A general alarm was turned in. The fire spread rapidly, and the furniture building was soon gutted. The fire is not yet under control, and is spreading to adjoining buildings. The loss so far is estimated at $150,000.

HIS SECRET DIED WITH HIM.

The American Aluminum Company Can No Longer Make Metal of Clay.

FINDLAY, Ohio, July 18.—Fred J. Seymour, manager of the American Aluminum works of this city, died last week, and it is not discovered that he had a secret process of making aluminum from clay died with Mr. Seymour. At the factory of the company, where for the last two years aluminum had been successfully produced, the secret of the process embraced every detail except the actual conversion of the material into the finished metal. It is a well known fact that Mr. Seymour had no one in the room where he worked at the critical moment when the molten mass was to be divided into its constituent parts. He supposed to have treated the material with some chemical which separated the precious aluminum from the dross, and it is this part of the process he carried with him to the grave. The company's endeavor of this fact has not as yet determined whether to abandon the works or continue under some new process.

TROUBLE IN TWO COLLEGES.

Brutal Students Expelled for Fighting—Two Obnoxious Professors Resign.

LANSING, Mich., July 18.—The trouble at the agricultural college here has not ended yet. Fred G. Stone, a sophomore, and W. J. Campbell, a junior, have been found guilty of hazing, and the former has been suspended for two years, while the latter is expelled. More expulsions are to follow. These students hazed five freshmen, nearly killing one poor fellow, whose room was filled with noxious gas while he slept.

ANS ARBOR, Mich., July 18.—Three weeks ago the regents of the university asked for the resignations of Prof. McLean and Frothingham, charged with inciting rebellion in the college. The professors declared with remarkable emphasis that they would resign. Wednesday that resignations were received by the regent and were immediately accepted.

Great Strike of Miners in Germany. BREITEN, July 18.—The strikes in the Volkersberg district have become general and every minor is now out. The strikers from the Loeben district are flocking to Volkersberg, and serve to aggravate the discontent. The military are kept in readiness to quell and disperse the strikers.

The mine owners offer an advance of 24 per cent in wages, but the men hold out for 50 per cent. Troops are occupying the class works and paper mills in Volkersberg, but in the mines it is feared that the men will set the pit on fire. Seven arrests of violent strikers were made to-day.

Maj. Warner and the Encampment. KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 18.—Maj. Warner, commander in chief of the G. A. R. has returned to Kansas City. Regarding the national G. A. R. encampment to be held at Milwaukee he said that he had encouraged and expects a large attendance. The eastern railroads, he said, have treated him better than the western many of them having voluntarily offered the 1 cent a mile rate.

Germany Gives Italy a Hint. BERLIN, July 18.—The North German Gazette, commenting on the affair of Sunday at the Impos cafe on the Rue Royale, Paris, the head of the Great Universities in an Italian flag and trampled it in the mud, afterward attacking and wrecking the cafe, takes occasion to remind the Italians that their interests lie rather with Germany than with France.

RAYMOND, Feb. 23, 1888.
Dr. F. B. BREWER: I received your last box of medicine all right. I think I am much better than I was a week ago. I commenced to gain strength as soon as I got the pills and fevers broken up. I don't have those nervous spells any more. I don't cough and raise as much as I did. I do raise looks pretty bad but no blood, just clear corruption. I have not vomited up my food for about a week. My vitals begin to taste natural. I have a splendid appetite.

Large sales permit me to make these prices. My plan of moving goods quickly is troubling the old retailers, but I shall continue to do so as long as the public demonstrates to me the appre-

Never has there been a larger or more complete line of Builders' Hardware in LIVELY TIMES IN CAMP 20.

A STORMY SESSION OF THE CLAN-NA-GAEL.

Andrew Foy Describes the Trial of Doctor Cronin—Beggs' and Coughlin's Denunciation of Him.

CHICAGO, July 18.—State's Attorney Longenecker refuses to admit or deny the report that he has received a very important statement regarding the Cronin case from Andrew Foy, of North Side Irishman and member of Camp 20.
Judge Longenecker, admits, however, having had several interviews with Foy.
It is stated on good authority that Foy has given valuable testimony concerning the actions of the camp which led up to the appointment of the committee which tried and condemned Dr. Cronin.
The story he is credited with telling is in substance that at the second meeting of which Beggs presided as senior guardian Dan Coughlin made a bitter attack upon Dr. Cronin. He charged him with being a follower of Le Caron and a British spy, and with having helped to break up the Clan-na-Gael by creating dissensions in its ranks. He denounced Cronin as a firebrand and disorganizer and a British spy.

Coughlin's remarks created the most intense excitement and an uproar and confusion which is indescribable. This gave John F. Beggs, in his efforts to restore order, an opportunity to make a speech, and in doing so, according to Foy's story,
he made a still more fierce attack on Cronin.
Then Tom Murphy followed and Capt. O'Connor read Dr. Cronin's charges against the trial.

The appointment of a committee to try Cronin was agreed to. At a subsequent meeting held May 3 Foy inquired if the committee had been appointed, and was told they had presented their report. The murder of Dr. Cronin followed the next evening.

"JACK THE RIPPER" SURE.

Great Excitement in London Over the Latest Outrage of "Jack the Ripper".

LONDON, July 18.—The excitement over the latest outrage of "Jack the Ripper" is even greater than after the previous murders, as the physicians who have examined the body of the unfortunate victim say the wound was made by the same person who committed the other "Whitechapel" murders. No part of the body is missing, and it is thought, therefore, that the miscroscope may have been interrupted in its work.

The body was still warm when found.
Four policemen were on the beat at the time of the murder, and a sergeant had passed the very spot ten minutes previously. The body was found in a narrow alleyway between Dorset, Hanbury, and Dean streets, the scenes of the previous "Whitechapel" murders.

The only clue which the police possess to the perpetrator of the "Whitechapel" murder is an old clay pipe, stained with blood, which was found near the murdered woman, though it is possible that the very pipe was thrown away previously. A little later in the day the body was thrown from Dorset, Hanbury, and Dean streets, the scenes of the previous "Whitechapel" murders.
